

Good Times

Ulf Kleiner, David Meisenzahl & Hanns Höhn

Audio-Cd, 2016 klangraum records

Good Times is a homage to the piano trios of the 1960s and especially to the parents of the three friends Ulf Kleiner, Hanns Höhn und David Meisenzahl. It was their parent's love of jazz that has enabled the three from an early age on to love and appreciate records like 'Soul Espaniol' by Oscar Peterson and their warm and easy sounds. With the help of an old baby grandpiano and in between all these old records the trio went on a journey through time into their shared past. Within two days the 11 tracks were recorded in the living room of Meisenzahl family, where all the legendary Jazz Parties of David's parents took place. Good Times has been published by Klangraum Records and has been mastered by Tom Krüger.

Also known as jazzteam-pianotrio, Kleiner, Höhn & Meisenzahl have been the studioband in the TV-show 'Lachen mit Lars' by Lars Reichow in HR tv-broadcasting. Each of the three has been touring around for years, playing in different Combos with musicians like Till Brönner, Ack van Royen, Robert Palmer, Jeff Cascaro, Konrad Beikircher, HR Bigband and many more.

„Kleiner, Hoehn and Meisenzahl know, how to make people happy.“ Victoriah Szimai – Fair Audio (10/2016)

„ The sparkling Lines are as beautiful as done by Oscar (Peterson) back in the days and you have to listen twice – how do they do it? (...)"

Günter Hottmann in HR 2 Jazzfacts, 26.9.2016

„ (...) which supports the silky attitude of the album with its eleven wonderful warm, even cosy songs: 'Good Times' has got Soul and Atmosphere!"

Michael Arens - Soultrain Online 8/2016.
